AN OPEN LETTER.

"Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters."—(Isaiah 32-20.)

Dear Friend.--Would you like to make some life brighter? Do you wish to secure some literature that is full of solid gospel and heavenly sunshine? We have BIBLES and TESTAMENTS ranging in price from ten cents to ten dollars; we have excellent books and pamphlets from five cents up, that incite people to heart purity and holy living; we have Sunday-school literature that throws full-salvation side-lights on the International Lessons.

The PENTECOSTAL HERALD, our sixteen-page weekly, is an index-hand, pointing to the higher Christian life. Send for sample copy. We also have most beautiful scripture-text wall mottoes. Representatives wanted in every community. Send for catalogue and prices.

SCIENCE HILL SCHOOL

SHELBYVILLE, KY.,

HAS held a prominent place among educational institutions for eighty years. To-day it ranks with the leading secondary schools of our country. Its certificate admits, without examination, to Wellesley and Smith Colleges.

The teachers are graduates of Wellesley, Radcliffe, University of Michigan and Cornell.

The advantages in music are superior, the teachers having had extensive training, both in this country and abroad.

Prices are reasonable. For catalogue, send to

MRS. W. T. POYNTER.

THE FIFTY-SIXTH SESSION

.. OF ..

Millersburg Female College

HAS opened with the largest enrollment of boarding pupils it has had for many years.

With eight elegant new rooms, a new system of waterworks, supplying hot and cold water to well-equipped bath rooms on each floor, a liberal course of study and a thoroughly competent faculty, this school offers advantages second to none in the State.

We appeal for patronage to those who appreciate thorough work and a safe place for their girls. The social, sanitary and religious surroundings are unsurpassed.

Kentucky Wesleyan College.

THE Next Term Opens WEDNESDAY, JAN. 3, 1906.

The Architect, Prof. Paul V. Anderson, of the State College, guarantees that the next term may begin its work in the new building. That building is now being rushed on to completion and when finished will be one of the best college structures to be found in the South. It is confidently believed that the opening of the new building means new life and better things for the College. There never was a more opportune time for students to enter. New classes will be organized and superior advantages will be offered. A special course will be offered public school teachers. Those who have taken this course in the past have little difficulty in securing first grade certificates at the county examinations. The expense of a term at the Kentucky Wesleyan is remarkably low, when the superior advantages are taken into consideration. A genuine college course can nowhere be obtained for less money. The Kentucky Wesleyan is owned by the Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, and is ranked by the General Board of Education as the only Methodist College in the State. It meets all requirements of the Educational Commission.

Clark Hall, named in honor of a generous layman of the Williamstown Church, affords a comfortable Dormitory for students at a low cost. Prof. D. D. Peale, of the College Faculty, lives with the students in the Dormitory and acts as their friend and advisor. It is a safe college home for young men.

We are anxious to get every young man possible to enter upon the New Term's work, and will be glad to have the name of all possible students. Correspondence solicited. For catalogues or other information, address

President J. L. Weber,

Winchester, Ky.

The following resolution was offered by W. E. Arnold:

"Recognizing the great need of a revival of pure religion and of a general advance movement throughout our Conference; therefore,

"Resolved by the members of the Kentucky Conference, 1, That the 13th, 14th and 15th of October 1905, be set apart as a time of special thought, humiliation and prayer for gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon ourselves and upon our people.

"Resolved, 2, That every pastor be requested and urged to plan, pray and put forth every effort to secure a revival in every church, and advance the cause of Methodism in his community during the year.

"Resolved, 3, That our Presiding Elders be requested to give special attention to the promotion of the revival spirit among the people of their respective districts, and that they become leaders in the advance movement so greatly desired.

"Resolved, 4, That all our preachers be urged to preach clearly and constantly the great essential doctrines which have distinguished Methodism, and which have entered so largely into our successes in the past; and that they be diligent in the circulation of our literature, such as church papers, books and doctrinal tracts, so that our people may be instructed and grounded in the doctrines and usages of Methodism."

Resolution was adopted.

The following were introduced to the Conference: Dr. H. A. M. Henderson, S. J. Herben, R. Zaring and F. W. Harrop.

The Committee on the American Bible Society submitted its report, and it was adopted. (See Appendix.)

The following resolution, by Jno. R. Peeples, was adopted:

"Resolved, That we request Bishop Candler to address an open letter through the Central Methodism to the people of the Kentucky Conference on the importance of united effort upon the part of the people and preachers to secure such revival as he described to us in his excellent address this morning."

The following resolution, signed by Geo. Froh and others, was offered:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Kentucky Conference in Annual Conference assembled, do hereby memorialize the General Conference to meet in Birmingham, Ala., in May next, to so amend the Discipline as to authorize the Bishops to appoint members of the Annual Conference to the superintendency of the Anti-Saloon League work when requested to do so by an Annual Conference."

After some discussion, a motion to defer final decision on resolution prevailed.

A motion to extend time of session until resolution under consideration was disposed of was lost.

On motion, the Conference adjourned to meet at 1:30 this afternoon.

REV. GEORGE S. SAVAGE, M. D.

At the age of ninety-two Dr. Savage, the oldest member of the Kentucky Conference by eleven years, and probably the oldest minister in the State, passed to his reward from his home in Winchester.

He was born February 2, 1813, in a beautiful valley on the Ohio river, a few miles above Vanceburg, Ky. His mother was a thoroughly consecrated Christian. He never wearied in bearing testimony to her beautiful character and holy life. In infancy he was baptized by Rev. Wm. McMahon. As a boy he went to Germantown, Ky., to clerk in the store of a relative. Here he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the ministry of Rev. Samuel Veach, December 7, 1827, and in the same place was converted May 28, 1828. Two years since he went on a pilgrimage to the town and the room where he first found Christ.

Dr. Savage entered the Ministry in 1835, at the age of twenty-two. He was licensed to preach by Rev. William Adams in Frankfort, Ky., September 5th, and admitted on trial shortly after at the Conference held in Shelbyville. His first appointment was the Versailles Circuit, as the colleague of Rev. T. N. Ralston. His journal indicates that he traveled this year 2,323 miles, preached 225 sermons, received 50 into the society, read 15,000 pages, and obtained 33 subscribers for the Advocate.

His second appointment was the Minerva Circuit, as the colleague of Martin L. Eads. Their labors were signally blessed, one hundred and fifty-seven being added to the membership and a house of worship erected at Dover, Ky. At the close of this year, on account of ill health, after being received into full connection, he was granted a location. In 1839 he was readmitted, and served for a year each Germantown and Shanon Circuits. To the former there were 307 and to the latter 125 additions. Again in failing health, he was superannuated in 1841, but for what time he was in this relation we are unable now to state.

After being made effective again, his chief work was in connection with Christian education and the American Bible Society.

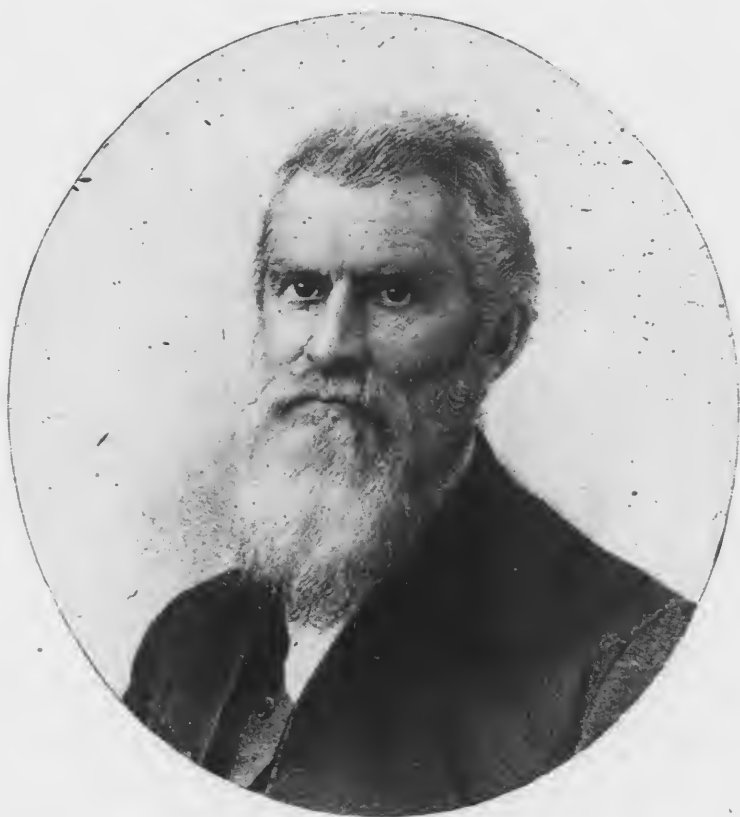

At the Millersburg Female College he and his accomplished wife achieved results which should be held in remembrance by the Church and State. Hundreds of young women, under their influence, were prepared to adorn and keep sacred that which is most like heaven—a Christian home. In 1866 he took charge of the Bible Society work for Eastern Kentucky. In 1870 his work was made to include the whole State. In 1877 his field was again enlarged to cover also Eastern and Middle Tennessee. In 1883 he was made district superintendent of the entire territory of the two States. This office he held for thirty-two years, resigning only on account of the infirmities of age in 1898. With his appointment to this position he began what is known as the "Jubilee Canvass of Kentucky." For eight years this work was prosecuted, and resulted in the visiting of 168,308 families, many of whom were supplied with the Scriptures. The secret of his success in this field would perhaps be found in that he fully appreciated the importance of his mission; that he was a born organizer; that he had a genius for detail, and an abiding faith in God.

Dr. Savage was a man of strict integrity. The supreme question with him was: "What is right between man and man, in the sight of God?" He saw no virtue in loss business methods, and he had scant patience with those who indulged them. His own word was literally as good as his bond. Industry was one of his chief characteristics. The labor he performed was wonderful. By night and day, in heat and cold, by almost every mode, he traveled for the Society 525,268 miles, and superintended the distribution of more than a million and a quarter of Bibles. His social qualities were of the highest order.

In 1840 he was married to Mary E. Small, who lived less than four years. In 1848 he married Cleora Bright, with whom he lived fifty-two years. In the home as husband, father, grandfather, he had few superiors. Few men had more or better friends. Multitudes of homes were open to him, and his presense was felt to be a benediction. The old-time gentleman! How appreciative and defferential to women! Dignified, but cheerful; cordial, but respectful; select in the choice of friends, but dispensing the largest and most gracious hospitality.

In purity of character and life we have rarely known him to be surpassed. That indefinable, quiet influence, which in every man or woman makes for spiritual life or moral death, was in him the minister of life. As a preacher he was scriptural, practical, earnest, and courageous.

One of the remarkable facts is that he was probably a much better preacher and a more efficient man every way at seventy than at fifty, and that he was actively engaged in the Master's work until he was eighty-six. Perhaps that in which he most excelled in all his public efforts was prayer. In this he was gifted, and seemed to talk face to face with God. He rarely closed a petition without seeming to be moved himself, and often profoundly moving others.

Probably Dr. Savage died as he would have preferred. At 4 P. M. March 27th he requested a friend to read his favorite chapter—the fourteenth of John. Then he took a short walk. At 7:30 his spirit was with God. His last words were: "I am dying. Lord, take me."

The words used by him in surrendering his commission to the Bible Society are appropriate here: "The saddest of all on the human side is the severance of the most delightful associations with so many true and tried friends; but in the bright morning that will be succeeded by no scorching noon-tide, the day that will know no chilling evening, we shall meet again in the 'house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.'"

The city of Winchester honored itself in giving honor to its oldest and one of its most respected citizens. At the request of the mayor, the business houses were closed; the sessions of Kentucky Wesleyan College and the public school were adjourned, and the students, marching to the church in a body, greatly increased the great company assembled to show respect to this man of God.

The service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. R. Savage, who was assisted by several members of the Conference, the writer seeking to enforce some lessons from the life of this nestor of Kentucky Methodism.

REV. W. W. CHAMBERLIN.

The writer of this sketch has to begin it with a preface resembling an apology. He is placed at disadvantage. The duty fell on him at the seat of the Conference where he had no opportunity of consulting the family of the deceased as to dates and facts.

We do not know the day, the month nor, the year of his birth. We think he was born in the East.

Although the writer has, from his childhood, known Bro. Chamberlain well, he never heard him speak but sparingly of his early life, and that little was spoken when he was an old man.

Should we follow the impression made upon our memory, we should designate Pennsylvania as his native State. When a lad he attended college in Ohio, at which time he was dependent upon his own resources. We have no data at hand as to the beginning of his religious life. He found his way into the M. E. Church, South, into her ministry, into the Kentucky Conference. From this point all is clear. His history is well known to this body—is a part of its history.

He entered the traveling connection in 1855. From this fact we are pretty certain that he was about seventy-five years old at the time of his death. His first work was in the mountains.

While teaching in Harrison County, he formed the acquaintance of Miss Rhoda Berry, who afterward became his wife. After his marriage he desired to be released from service in the mountains. The war was then on, however, and the distracted condition of the country rendered it difficult to find a man for the mountain work.

His equipoise, his conservative course, his stronghold on the confidence of both parties to the struggle pointed to Bro. Chamberlain as the man. To the mountains he went and with him his heroic young wife. She had been cradled in affluence, but on horseback, by the side of the man of her choice, she traveled a mountain circuit.

On one occasion their steeds were taken from them and they were left to "foot it out." Their horses were subsequently restored, however.

We may as well say in this connection that this devoted girl followed his fortunes through all the changes and hardships of a long itinerant career, and after his superannuation in 1896 she was a ministering angel to him "in age and feebleness extreme."

Now in widowhood, God has not forgotten her, she triumphs in a rich Christian experience—rejoices in full salvation.

It goes without the saying that Bro. Chamberlain was a faithful Methodist preacher. From his entrance of the Conference in 1855 to his superannuation in 1896 his service was unbroken. He served every charge assigned from good station to mountain circuit and district without complaint.

We are prepared to say that Bro. C., was a shining example of that none too frequent character "the modest man." Stating it contrary wise he was not a "hustler"—we mean hustler in a not good sense. He was not "a money loving clergyman, a preferment seeking clergyman." Mr Wesley said such was "a madman above all madman; a fool above fools." He had gifts far superior to many manipulators who have forged to the front.

He was a preacher. We speak advisedly. He was a preacher. If comparisons may be introduced in such connection we should say he could out-preach more men than could out-preach him. His education was fair; his habits studious; his sermons carefully prepared; his voice was soft and pleasant, his delivery flowing and easy; his hearers were interested, pleased and edified. He was a true man. We mean what we say.

Viewed from every point of the compass, measured by every standard he was a true man. He told the truth, paid his debts, was sincere, was incorruptible. His life went far in anchoring our faith to mankind.

Bro. Chamberlain may be said to have been a Harrison County preacher. He married there more than forty years ago, and fifteen years or twenty of his pastoral life were spent there, and that is the place to go to find out about him. There where he is best known his memory is best revered. He married their parents, baptized their children, buried their dead. His name is a household word.

His funeral took place at his home. The pastor, Rev. W. A. Penn, officiated, assisted by the writer. In one point of view this was appropriate. They were his boys. They grew up under his ministry. They love him as a father. They felt honored in being allowed to lay a flower on his casket and to consign his body to the ground, "earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust."

With Bro. Chamberlain "the ruling passion was strong in death." He was, at the last, subject to lapses of memory. He might forget the name of his dearest friend, he might forget the road he had traveled a hundred times, he might forget whether it was morning or evening, but when called on to pray at the close of the Sunday morning service he responded with a recollection and eloquence worthy of his prime.

There are three children, James Chamberlain, Dr. Poyntz Chamberlain and Mrs Orpah Smith. They will cherish the memory of the father who received his trust from God, served it faithfully through a long life and returned it untarnished.

REV. D. P. WARE.

Rev. D. P. Ware, a useful member of Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South, died of pneumonia on Dec. 15th., 1904, at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Baker, at Verden, Powell County, Ky.

He was pastor of the church at Jaskson, Ky., at the time, but had not moved to that place. His furniture had, however, been shipped to Jackson and he was arranging to occupy the parsonage there when the severe illness seized him which resulted in death.

He was born July 23rd, 1857 near Indian Fields, Clark County, Ky., He was one of seven children of Robert and Emily Ware. His parents were strict Baptists, but he was converted at the age of eighteen and united with the M. E. Church, South. Was licensed to preach June 22, 1878, by Rev. J. J. Johnston, Presiding Elder. Was admitted to Kentucky Conference at a session held at Richmond in 1879. His two brothers are local Methodist preachers. His first wife was Miss Sallie A. Cox. The two children of that union, J. W. Ware and Samuel Flynn, survive after both mother and father have gone. His second marriage was in 1899 to Miss Pattie Wilson, of Waco, Ky., who still lives and testifies to the kindness and generosity of her husband. To the writer she said: "Maybe you do not know how the interest of his family was on his mind, and he looked after us as though we were not able to take care of ourselves. He never saw one in need without giving help. He kept himself in a hard place by helping others."

His devotion to his family and friends was not his only good quality. He loved God and His church and was loyal to the doctrines and discipline of his own particular denomination. Was well informed and several times ably defended Methodist doctrine when it was assailed by ministers of other denominations. Bro. Ware served several important charges in the Kentucky Conference and left his impress everywhere for good. He had rare native gifts—amounting really to genius—and had been a diligent student.

His preaching was keenly intellectual and spiritually helpful as well. The Jackson people were getting attached much to him as a preacher and felt his loss greatly.

He was so young in appearance and genial in manner that one is surprised to know he had been in the Conference twenty-five years!

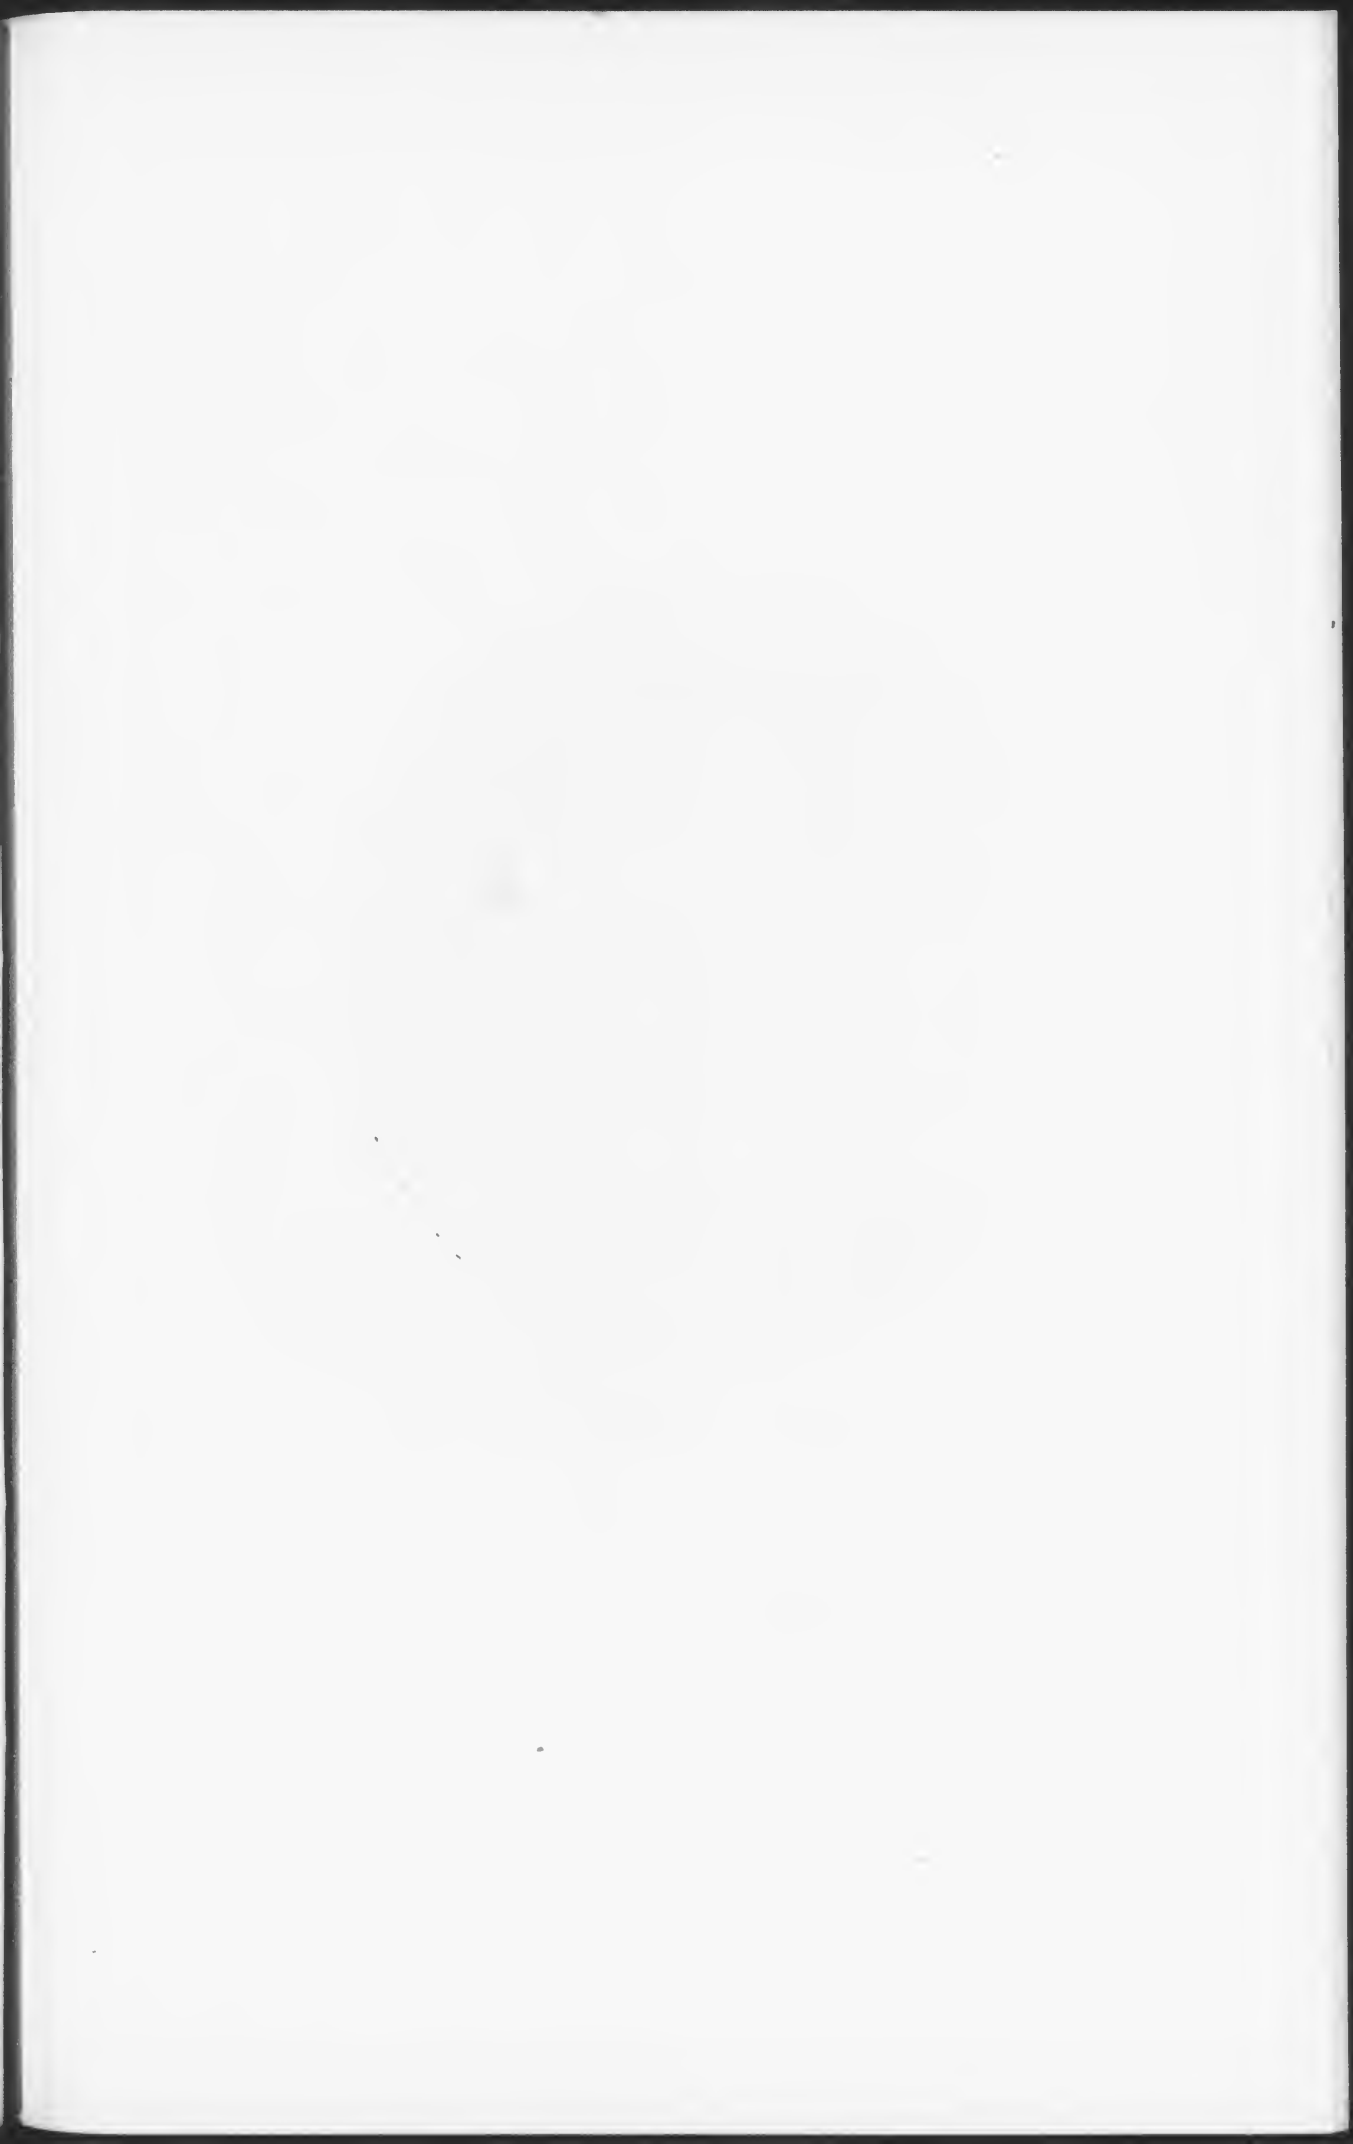

His companions in the ministry can never forget his innocent, good humor, inimitable anecdotes and sparkling wit. Every listener in the large circle which was often around when he was talking was made to laugh or cry at what he was telling. He had a manly independence and a generous heart.

The weather was severe the day his funeral was held from El Bethel church, near his old home, but the size and spirit of the congregation assembled gave marked evidence of the high standing he had with his neighbors and most familiar acquaintances.

The Conference has lost a man who did much for Methodism and the general good cause, especially in Eastern Kentucky. He will be much missed by many brethren of the Conference who admired his talents and enjoyed fellowship with him. One by one the "Soldiers of the Cross" are falling, and as we are pierced with grief and pain at their departue we must buckle on the armor closer and fight still tne good fight of faith that we, too, may lay hold on eternal life.

REV. MORRIS EVANS, D. D.

After a ministry of nearly fifty-seven years, our long time noble friend, Doctor Evans, fell asleep January 7th, 1905 at his home in Sulphur Springs, Texas.

His body was laid away in the beautiful cemetery at Harrodsburg, Ky., after a suitable sermon by the writer who, in the use of the ritual, was assisted by Dr. W. F. Vaughan. Dr. Evans' death was due to heart failure, at seventy-five years of age.

Brother Evans entered our itinerant service in 1848. He was soon employed in California, and stayed there several years. His history, however, is unknown to this Conference, until he was readmitted among us Sept. 15, 1868 at Frankfort, and became our preacher in charge at Stanford.

His active or itinerant service with this Conference covered a period of twenty-two years and was closed at the session in Lexington, in 1890, by his transfer to Baltimore Conference. In that time he was a circuit and stationed preacher for fourteen years; a college president for three years and in two schools; a presiding elder for five years and over three districts.

During fourteen years he must have been working in other Conferences, but of this service I have been unable to learn anything worth record, although more than usual attempt was made.

The transfer of Dr. Evans as a "superannuate" to the Kentucky Conference was made last September.

The items given here are all that our minutes contain, but I am not willing to close this account without a word or two more.

Our brother was a strong and handsome man. He had a nature of noble sort. His mind was clear, his habit scholarly, his disposition very kind. He loved to read books, but was more given to thinking. His convictions were his own and he stood manfully by them. Exegesis was his delight, original research a passion. I never knew a student of more patient, painstaking care to get the truth—to come at the facts.

When mastered he enjoyed a defense of them. He had a taste for controversy and made more than was wise out of the logical disputes and differences with brethren beloved.

Dr. Evans was very quiet and modest—talked little of himself unless with intimate friends. The list of these was not long, but included choice spirits. Many of these departed before him. Their reunion will be joyous—their fellowship unmarred and unending:

"Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet:
Where the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul."

JNO. R. DEERING.

REV. W. H. H. DITZLER.

Rev. William Henry Harrison Ditzler, the son of George G. and Mary J. Ditzler, was born in Oldham County, Ky., May 23d, 1841, and died at LaGrange, in the same county, June 21st, 1905.

In the home of his childhood and youth the family altar was kept up, and he is said to have been pious from his boyhood.

Just what his educational advantages were the writer does not know, but is assured he had a fine memory and learned rapidly.

In the fall of 1868 he was admitted on trial in Kentucky Annual Conference and was effective until the fall of 1902, when he was placed on the superannuated list. During his active ministry he served various charges with more or less success; but his best work, perhaps, was done on the Sharpsburg and Bethel Circuit, where he spent four years and was greatly beloved by the people.

Bro. Ditzler's sermons were generally well prepared and he usually made his points clear and strong. He was also a ready writer and often wrote interesting articles for the church papers.

He was a man of clear speech and gentle manners. As a husband and father he was loving and kind; as a brother and friend, faithful and true.

He was married three times, and leaves a wife and three daughters, children of his second wife.

At best he did not seem to be strong in body and during the last years of his life he was frequently quite feeble. Just before his last sickness he wrote to his sister: "I think the end is near. I feel it will not be long before I go."

He had expressed a desire to go to Conference once more and see his brethren in the ministry, but he was not permitted to do so.

His last illness was severe and during most of the time he was delirious; but in a lucid moment he said to those standing by: "I am so happy! I feel like shouting!"

He was buried at Bloomfield, by the side of the mother of his children.

May all of his loved ones be so guided and helped as at last to meet him in the better land.

MRS. VIRGINIA P. ROBERTSON.

Mrs. Virginia P. Robertson, wife of the Rev. Samuel L. Robertson, was born Sept. 27th., 1823; died Oct. 16th., 1904, age 81 years.

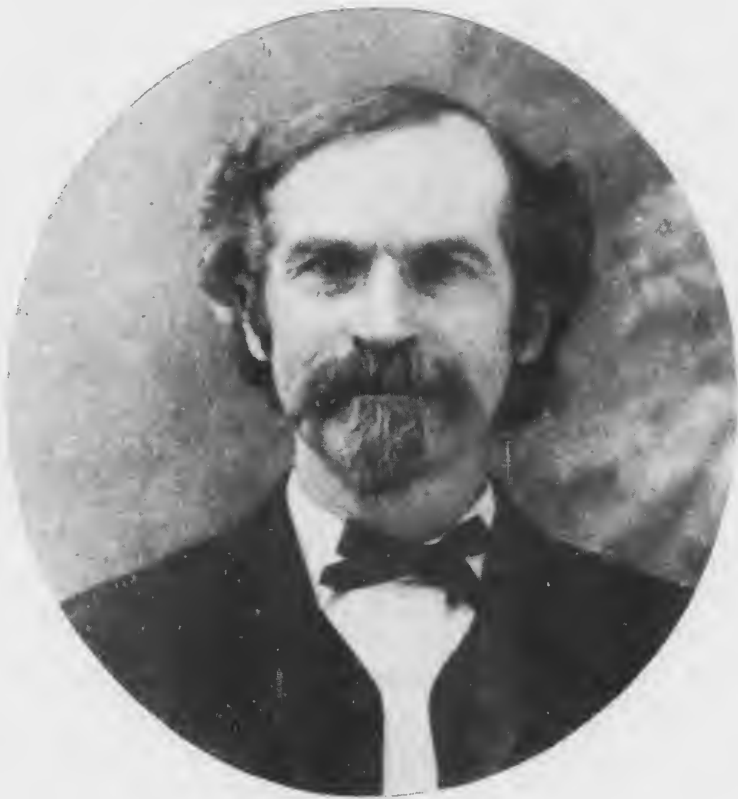

Her maiden name was Cox, and the city of Louisville was the home of her childhood.

After the death of her husband, which occurred in 1880, she removed to Orlando, Fla., where she resided during the remainder of her life.

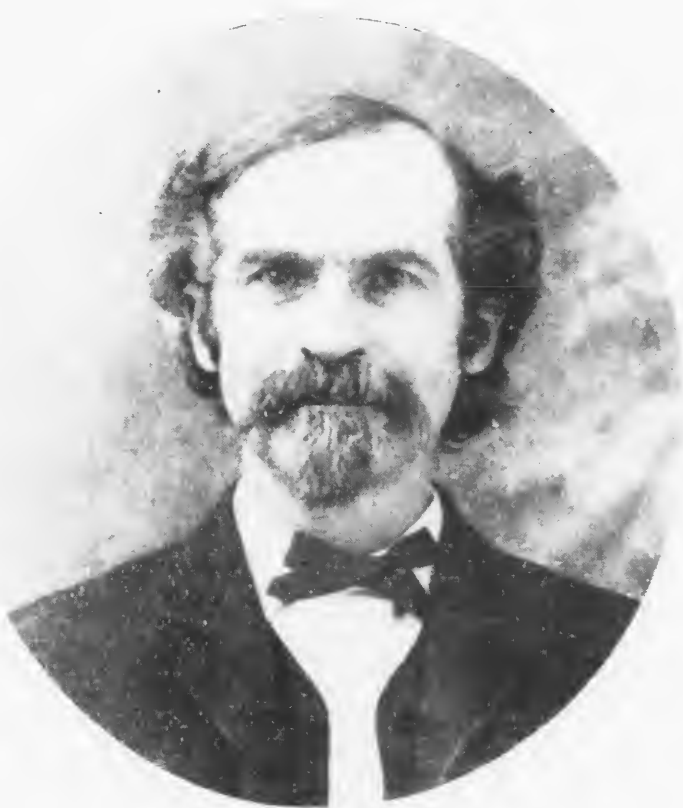

She had been a great sufferer, though not confined to her bed until near the end. Separated from relatives and old friends, kind hands of Christain people ministered to her wants in her last hours.

She had placed her membership in the church at Orlando and her funeral was conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. V. Atkinson.

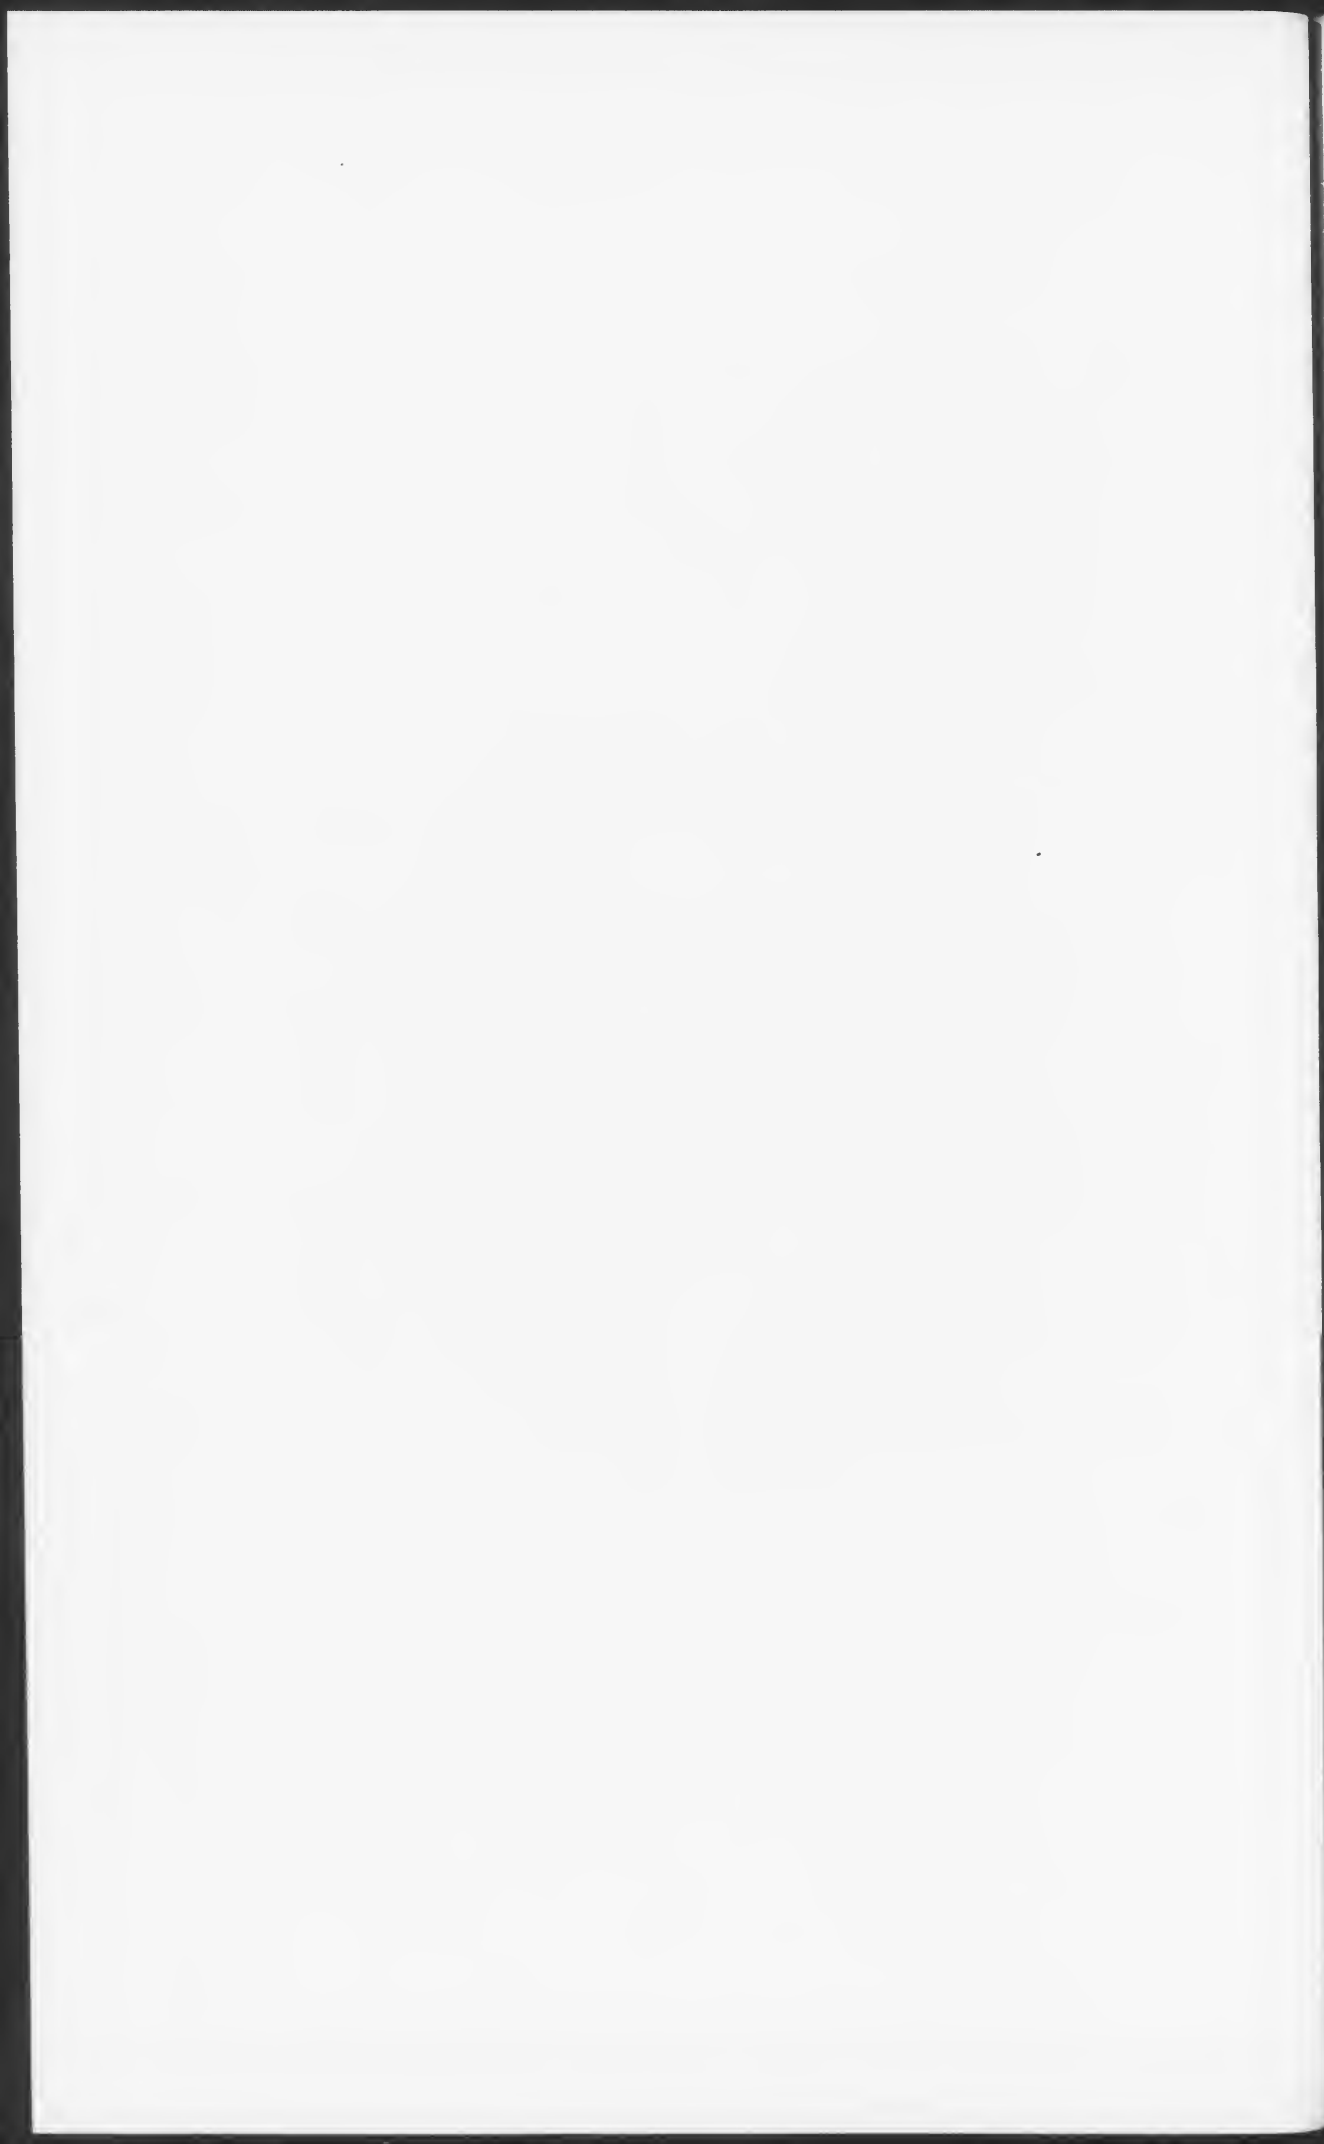

She was a faithful and devoted Methodist all her life.

MRS. ELLEN A. MARRIMON.

Ellen Alvira Dodd was born near Danville, Ky., March 13th, 1833, married to D. H. Marrimon January 9th, 1855, who died while pastor at Petersburg, Ky., May 29th., 1895; she then came to the home of her son-in-law, J. B. True, near Georgetown, Ky., and remained until her death. To them were born four daughters, three yet survive.

She had a big heart filled with sincerity and sympathy. These traits made her many friends, whose friendship grew stronger with increasing intimacy. Though timid, she went about doing good, the poor blessed her, the sorrowing received her consolation and were comforted. She learned when quite young to take God at His word, but the last twenty-seven of her forty years' married life were spent in next to the most important position any being could occupy in the sight of God this side of the grave—that of an itinerant preacher's wife; she had learned what it was both to abound and to suffer need; had lived upon the promises in dark times when the meager salary, barely a support, had not been paid, when the barrel was empty and the purse depleted, but like a true heroine, she had learned also who was her fortress and deliverer. So we are not surprised that after being educated in such a school she had a strong religious endowment of faith, piety and love, and that her influence sweetened the lives of all about her. Wherever her lot was cast she led the same consecrated life; and when old age, with its infirmities, overtook her, she had the same spirit of the beloved disciple; though her feet touched earth she seemed to live in and breathe the very atmosphere of heaven, blessing and helping all she came in contact with.

Before she reached her seventy-second year she lived much in the past, one of her chief delights was to read over the names of the old preachers of the Kentucky Conference, and when one would fall she would exclaim, another good man has been gathered home; they were all good to her.

She was blind to our infirmities, for she loved everybody. Brother True said: "Hers was the purest, sweetest nature I ever came in contact with and her daily life the best sermon I ever heard preached. I prayed God all the day before she died to spare her to me, for my life was the better for having such an example continually before me. Knowing several days beforehand that she would soon pass away, she left messages for each member of her family, thanking us over and over again for every attention paid, but pleading at the same time, 'Children, let me go home, for I am suffering much here, and there I will be free from all pain, my way is bright and it will simply be saying good-bye here and a welcome by those over there, who will meet me at heaven's gate.' So on February 17th, 1905, she sweetly fell on sleep and after funeral services, conducted by the writer, we placed her body by that of her daughter, Mollie, in the Georgetown cemetery, expecting soon to meet her again where there will be no more pain or death, but we are to live with God and angles forever and ever."

S. W. PEEPLES.

MRS. J. J. JOHNSON.

The subject of this sketch, the wife of the Rev. J. J. Johnson, was born in 1829 and departed this life May 7th, 1905.

She was a great sufferer. Several years ago she became so prostrated by severe affliction that she was ever afterward confined to her room, generally to her bed. Her health gradually improved, so that she was able to oversee the domestic affairs, devolving upon her daughters the more active duties of the household.

But, although confined to her room for years, her example of patience, her tact in planing and directing her domestic duties and her kind and Christian manners were of estimable value to her family. Such sweetness of temper, so many sensible lessons upon proprieties of life and such a consistent exemplification of the purity and power of religion as she exhibited throughout these long years of affliction, made an ineffaceable impression upon her children. And doubtless that impression was stronger from the fact that these lovely traits were seen in a fond and suffering mother.

But this deeply afflicted lady, having been mercifully spared to train her young family for years after she became a hopeless invalid, was at last permitted to rest from her sorrows and to die in the triumphs of Christian faith.

Rev. T. J. Godbey and the writer conducted the funeral service. Bro. Godbey took the lead, and there were not many dry eyes when he closed.

She leaves several children behind to mourn her loss. May they at last be led to that land where there shall be no night.

Total . . . . .	$5,500 00

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. BALL, Treasurer.

Covington, Ky., Sept. 8, 1905.

The report was adopted.

W. E. Arnold made a statement concerning an undistributed balance in the hands of our Book Agents, left by will of J. M. Morgan for "Domestic Missions in the M. E. Church, South." It appears that a question arose concerning the construction of this will, whether this part of the money belongs to Domestic Missions in the Kentucky Conference, or to Domestic Missions in the church at large. This question has never been settled, and the funds still remain in the hands of our Book Agents, (or of J. D. Hamilton, Tr.)

On motion, a committee was appointed, consisting of W. E. Arnold, D. L. Thornton and J. M. Strother to look into the matter, and with power to act in behalf of this Conference.

It was moved and seconded, that the officers of the Legal Conference be re-elected, and that they be the officers for the coming year. Carried.

The officers are:

W. F. Taylor, President,
W. E. Arnold, Secretary,

W. W. Ball, Treasurer,

The Legal Conference then adjourned.

CONFERENCE CASHIER.

Covington, Ky., Sept. 8th, 1905.

To the Kentucky Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South,

Covington, Ky.:

Dear Brethren—As your Conference Cashier I beg leave to report that since my report of last year I have collected and disbursed the sum of $17,877.60, as follows:

Bishop's Fund .....	$ 846 43
Conference Claimants .....	2,919 82
Foreign Missions .....	5,647 82
Domestic Missions .....	3,271 76
Church Extensions .....	1,800 81
Education .....	2,017 15
American Bible Society .....	663 37
Payne & Layne .....	233 13
General Conference Delegate .....	157 57
Super. Endowment Fund .....	21 50
Children's Day .....	167 87
Printing Minutes .....	125 37
Cram Fund .....	5 00
Total .....	$17,877 60

Of the above amount $16,978.96 has been collected since this Conference convened.

I file herewith an account, showing in detail, from whom and for what purpose the same has been collected and to whom and for what purpose the same has been disbursed.

I also file herewith vouchers for all disbursements, and also the reports as made by the brethren on Table No. 5.

As Table No. 5 is not published in our Minutes, I suggest that it would be for our mutual protection that an Auditing Committee be appointed to whom this report and these papers may be referred for examination.

It may not be amiss to state that the brethren were somewhat more prompt in making their reports this year. I feel sure that if the brethren knew how much real trouble a delayed report causes your cashier all of them would be in on the first day.

It would take too much time to explain it here, but I am sure that I am not exaggerating when I say that one delayed report causes your Cashier ten times as much labor and trouble as one made in regular course.

Several brethren who could not get to Conference on the first day, sent their reports in by mail so that reports would be on time. I hope others will do this in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. B. WINSLOW,
Conf. Cashier.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO AUDIT CASHIER'S REPORT.

We, the Committee, have examined the Cashier's report and found it to be correct as read.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. BALL,
O. J. CHANDLER.

CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The Committee on District Conference Records, submits the following report:

We have examined the District Conference Records of the Kentucky Conference, and found them well kept, with the following exceptions:

We find the Covington District Record badly jumbled.

In the Lexington District Record we find the names of ladies recorded as members of District Conference contrary to the law of the church.

BIBLE SOCIETY.

Your committee on the American Bible Society would respectfully submit the following report:

It seems useless to stress the importance of the claim of the American Bible Society. All nations, kindred and tongues depend to some extent upon the success of this Society. Every mission field foreign and home, city and otherwise, are supplied largely with Bibles from this publishing house.

We deem it unnecessary to encumber our minutes with lengthy statistics; however, we must mention this fact: We have now unprecedented demands for the Bible in China, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Cuba and other points; therefore, if these demands are supplied there must be more copies of the Bible published than has ever been in the history of the Association.

Let us fall in line and co-operate with the managers of the American Bible Society and celebrate the 90th anniversary of this Association by holding a special service some time during the year in each of our churches. And that at each of these services a history of the great success of this Society be given and a collection be taken for the same.

We have placed an assessment of $1,000 on the Kentucky Conference for the coming year for this Society.

We trust it will be paid in full.

ORPHANS' HOME.

We, your Committee on Orphan's Home, beg leave to make the following report:

We have before our Committee brother H. Wirgman, President of the institution, and brother E. S. Boswell, the agent, and from their reports we gather the following encouraging items: First, we note with great pleasure that 18 beds have been endowed during the years, and and that the donations for the institution were the best ever received.

Our agent's report shows that the 5th Sunday movement has made a steady advance since it was first inaugurated at the Conference of 1902. At the Conference of 1903 the 606 schools gave $1,259.70. At the Conference of 1904, 848 schools gave $1,798.14. At this Conference 986 schools report $2,204.40. Of the Sunday-schools reporting this Conference year, 47 per cent. are from the Kentucky Conference.

Since this movement has been so successful, we heartily recommend its continuation, and would suggest that where schools go into winter quarters, that the pastor or superintendent lay the matter before the church, letting it be known as the 5th Sunday offering.

From the president's report, we find that there are now 62 children in the Home, but there have been 70 children during the year. Several children have been received into the institution, and several placed into good homes during the year.

Lost by death during the year one little boy.

There are twelve applications for admission now before the board.

The health of the children of the institution is splendid.

The board of directors of our institution, after carefully considering the question, feel that their care and control of children should cease at the age of 18 rather than 21, believing that the children should become self-supporting at that age, thereby making room for other smaller and deserving children. We recommend that the board take such steps as are necessary to bring about this result.

We heartily recommend the reappointment of E. S. Boswell as agent, and the election of Mrs. H. J. Pendery as Matron for the ensuing year.

Appended hereto as a part of our report, is the financial statement as shown by the president's report:

Home property, 906 Fifth St. ....	$34,500 00
Market St. property (improvements $3,573.24).....	22,573 24
Elliott Ave. property .....	1,200 00

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education of Kentucky Annual Conference of the M E. Church South would report that we have worked under great difficulties during a considerable portion of the last year.

On the 14th of February our college building was burned. The outlook seemed gloomy until the citizens of Winchester, as led by the Commercial Club, subscribed a sufficient amount, together with the insurance and salvage, to replace the building in as good condition as before.

This munificent gift on the part of the Winchester people inspires us with deepest gratitude and spurs us to our greatest endeavors for the college. Their timely aid is a challenge to the entire Conference, such as we have never had before.

The new building is in process of construction, and, for utility and beauty, promises to be far superior to the former one.

The dormitory has undergone some much needed repairs, and is in fine condition, and affords an excellent home for students at very reasonable rates.

We have been greatly encouraged by the gifts of Mr. Mayo, of $5,000, and Mr. Carnegie, of $6,000—and other donations from friends of the college for various amounts—some $1,500 of which was secured under the agency of Rev. C. A. Tague.

The following resolution was passed:

A letter of recent date from J. C. C. Mayo was presented, which requested that his last gift of $5,000 to Kentucky Wesleyan College, which is payable the 15th of this month, should go to the purpose of college equipment. A telegram from him later authorized the Board of Education to appropriate said gift as above stated, or in any other way it desired. As Dr. J. L. Weber had been previously authorized to direct this same Mayo gift in the way he thought best, and as he counted it on the special collection recently undertaken to meet the $6,000 offer of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the Board unanimously decided to appropriate as much of said $5,000 to equipment of college as might be necessary, and left the remainder go to the endowment fund, together with any other money left out of this special collection which may not be needed for college equipment."

Dr. Weber reported that he had represented the gift of Mr. Mayo, and the special effort being made and the good results from it already secured, to Mr. Carnegie's agent, and he was perfectly satisfied to pay the $6,000 without further waiting, and did pay it, which payment has been turned over to the Treasurer of the Board of Education.

The preachers and people are urged still to co-operate in the effort for college equipment, because the more we raise on that, the more of the Mayo gift will be saved for the endowment fund.

As our people away from Winchester and Clark County have not been asked for anything in the rebuilding of the college, it would be only proper and right that they should at least raise an amount equal to that which is necessary for furniture and equipment, and if we already have money for that, it can be directed to endowment, which is gradually growing and ought to be yet much larger.

The Campton Academy has had a very prosperous year, and has opened up this year with a fine attendance of nearly 200 pupils. We are fortunate in securing the services of Rev. R. M. Lee as the principal. The Board has provided for the erection immediately of dormitory facilities.

ENDOWMENT FUND ACCOUNT.

Notes secured by liens on real estate .....	$38,000 00
Bank Stocks .....	5,116 25
Cash on hand .....	4,916 89
Total .....	$58,033 14

In response to a request from a joint meeting of Committees from the Boards of Education of the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church and the Louisville Conference M. E. Church, South, that this Board appoint a Committee of five to meet a like Committee from each of their Boards to consider our educational interests in the State, the following persons were chosen:

W. F. Taylor, D. D., Dr. J. L. Weber, Judge Ed. C. O'Rear, Mr. Tim Needham and E. G. B. Mann.

The Faculty for the present year is:

J. L. Weber, D. D., Mental and Moral Science.

W. H. Garrett, Ph. D., Mathematics and French.

B. T. Spencer, A. M., Greek and German.

W. S. Anderson, A. M., Chemistry and Physics.

D. D. Pelle, A. M., Latin and History.

A. N. Pyles, A. B., English.

Miss Gertrude Price, M. A., assistant in Mathematics.

Miss Myrtle Barker, assistant in Preparatory Department.

We recommend that a special effort be made during the year to raise a sum equal to $1,000.00 from each P. E.'s District and add same to the college funds. The following committee has been appointed to plan with the P. E.'s of the various districts for the raising of said sum, viz.: W. F. Taylor, J. L. Weber, J. R. Savage, J. P. Strother and W. E. Arnold.

J. R. SAVAGE, Sec'y.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Our University at Vanderbilt has, by reason of its recent loss by fire, been brought prominently before the church. There is reason to believe, however, that its prospects are brighter than heretofore. Two new buildings to take the place of the one destroyed by fire, viz: a college hall, to cost $150,000.00, and chemical laboratory, to cost $100,000, are in course of construction, while others are planned for the near future. We commend the institution to all young men looking toward the ministry.

We also recommend the Correspondence School as a valuable aid to systematic study, and especially serviceable to our young men.

It is the judgment of the Board of Education that something more can and should be done than is being done at the sessions of our Annual Conference to contribute to the intellectual and spiritual life of our ministry, especially of our younger ministers. We believe it is practicable to arrange for the delivery at Conference of a course of lectures or talks that will prove helpful in many ways to the intellectual and spiritual life of our ministers. We suggest, therefore, that the Board of Education be authorized to arrange for such a course of lectures at the next session of our Conference, to be delivered at eight o'clock in the morning immediately preceding the opening of the daily sessions of the Conference, or at such hour as may be convenient.

We should call attention to our Paine and Lane Institutes, and especially to the Lane College and its need of financial help to restore its main building which was burned recently.

We recommend the assessment upon the Conference of $339 for Paine and Lane Institutes, and $3,339 for education.

Our Educational Statistics are:

The 59th Annual Report of the Board of Missions shows that greater progress in evangelistic and educational work has been made than any previous year. There has been a large increase in membership, especially in Cuba. The demand of the work can not be fully met with the small force at the command of the Board—99 missionaries, 79 wives of missionaries, 94 native traveling preachers, 179 local preachers and other helpers, 15,711 members.

The greatest financial increase has been achieved during the year. The increase in the collection from the home Conferences being $16,802.86—increase from all sources $47,802.83. Twelve Annual Conferences have paid their assessments in full for Foreign Missions. One hundred Districts and 3,133 charges have paid in full for Foreign and Home Missions.

Only fifty years ago Japan was brought in touch with the commercial and religious influence of the western half of the world. To-day bids fair to exert a large influence over one-third of the population of the earth. To Christianize Japan would mean to influence for Christ a large part of Asia. China is more favorable toward the reception of instruction from Christian missionaries in their government schools, and the distribution of the New Testament that they may better understand the aim of Christianity. Encouraging reports reach us from Rev. W. G. Crain in Korea. None are more liberal and loyal than the Brazilian Methodists—the work of the Lord prospers in their hands. The aggressive spirit of Christianity prompts the Christians of Mexico to heroic efforts. Cuba's history speaks for itself. At the close of the Spanish war 24 Christians housed in a dwelling in Havana—now 1,476 members and 1,008 candidates for membership.

We heartily endorse the work of the training school at Nashville. We request our preachers to circulate "Go Forward," the Missionary Training School series and leaflets provided by the parent board. We urge that our Sunday-school be organized into Missionary Societies as provided by the Discipline.

In our home fields the work is moving forward, some new churches have been built, others repaired and some advance in the benevolent collections. Let all the pastors begin early in the year and secure contributions from every member. We rejoice in the success that has crowned the efforts of our good women in the work of their Foreign and Home Mission Societies. We pledge them our support and co-operation.

We are pleased to have with us Dr. Seth Ward, one of the Missionary Secretaries of the parent board. We recommend the appointment of Rev. E. C. Savage as Conference Missionary Secretary.

REPORT OF WOMANS' HOME MISSION SOCIETY, KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.

It is always a thoughtful time, when we sum up the record of the year, and it may seem, but the echo of the one gone before. Though we record no splendid achievements, there is numerical increase.

A clearer vision of the need of Home Mission work has dawned upon many, and a deeper love for the privilege of service is felt by our members. Eleven deaconesses have been at work this year, two were consecrated by Bishop Galloway, April 16th, in Montgomery, Ala., and twelve candidates are in training at the Scarrith Bible and Training School. "Let us be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord" ever looking to him for strength and grace, being assured our work is not in vain.

Statistical report for the Conference year, ending Sept. 1, 1905:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals reports as follows:

It is with pleasure we note the advance in sales and profits and the healthy financial condition of our publishing house. An increase of assets amounting to $37,391.96.

Owing to the changes in the fiscal year making it to close with December 31st. instead of March 31st, as heretofore, thus covering a period of nine months comparing the business done with that of the corresponding nine months of the preceeding year, we find an increase of $28,362.02. We think this is encouraging.

The Review, edited by Dr. J. J. Tigert, fills an important place in our church work. He is giving to us a better understanding of the literary development of our land. Every preacher should avail himself of its pages.

We greet with pleasure and admiration the Nashville Christian Advocate, and remark favorably upon the changes it has undergone as to style and departments represented in its columns.

We rejoice to know that the circulation of the Epworth Era has increased largely during the year; thus showing interest on the part of the young people of the church.

This is the age of newspapers. They issue from every village and enter every threshold in the land. They contain all kinds of information. They direct all kinds of social force. The dailies go in editions of hundreds of thousands and represent every grade of literary ability. All topics, events and results, appertaining to every sphere in life and affecting every quality of character, fall under discussion.

The newspaper contributes largely to popular education and character building; but how few have before them the ideal of Christian character; and yet in Christian homes what fatal preponderance is given to the secular press. Magazines and papers filled with saloon policies and sensational stories have undisputed sway in even Methodist homes, resulting in toning down the piety, relaxing the interest in church services and undermining the faith of our people. Something must be done and done at once.

In order to counteract this influence we urge upon our people the necessity of standing by our publications and so putting pure literature into the hands of our young people.

It is necessary for our people to be informed in church matters and it is almost as much impossible for them to obtain this information without the church periodicals as for a missionary to do effective work without the Bible.

We would call attention in this connection to the Central Methodist, our own Conference Organ, addressing itself to phases of our culture and necessities of our church life, considered by no other paper. It is under the editorial management of an intelligent and capable layman, Prof. D. W. Batson, of our own Conference, and under the business management of a popular and successful layman, H. Wirgman, of Louisville Conference, but it needs a hearty support to make it a success.

The publications under the auspices of our Missionary Board, meet the demands of the age and hour. Too much praise can not be bestowed upon the "Go Forward," edited by our Missionary Secretaries. No Methodist preacher's library is complete without it.

The Sunday-school periodicals continue to maintain their high tone of scholarship and should be faithfully used by all of our Sunday-schools.

We offer the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved: That the Kentucky Annual Conference hereby memorialize the General Conference at its next sitting, asking that we be given in the Teacher's Magazine and senior quarterly the department of advance Bible study, as provided at the International Toronto Convention.

2nd. Resolved: That we heartily endorse and commend to our people the books and periodicals of our own publishing house at Nashville, and urge our preachers and people to use them in preference to others.

That we specially commend the Nashville Christian Advocate and Central Methodist as necessities for the indoctrination of our people in the faith, the polity and administration of our church and that we spare no efforts to give them a wide circulation.

W. F. VAUGHAN, Ch'n,
JAMES E. WRIGHT, Sec'y.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

---

Your Epworth League Board begs leave to submit the following report:

We were pleased to have the General Secretary, Dr. H. M. DuBose, present with us at this Conference, and rejoice with him in whatever success attends the Epworth League Movement.

Having received and carefully considered the report of the General Secretary we record one appreciation of his optimism: "The growth of the League," especially "its advance in the matter of spiritual activity and helpfulness," its numerical increase in chapters and membership, its better financial basis; the increased circulation of the Era and any other success attained.

We regret our failure to hold an Epworth League Anniversary during this Annual Conference session, especially in view of the laggard attitude of the Kentucky Conference in Epworth League column.

We reiterate a part of last year's report with a couple of additional resolutions.

Whereas, Lack of interest and activity in the work of the Epworth League abounds among the pastors of the Kentucky Conference, be it resolved:

1. That as it is incumbent upon preachers in charge to organize an Epworth League in every Methodist congregation, that each Presiding Elder be urged to inquire particularly why this is not done, or, if attempted without success, why the effort is not continued and that the answer be spread upon the District Conference Records.

2. That each Presiding Elder see that his district is organized.

3. That we arrange for an Epworth League Anniversary at our next Annual Conference.

4. That we arrange for an Annual Epworth League Conference.

5. That H. G. Turner, U. G. Goote, W. T. Morris and T. W. Barker constitute the Committee on Arrangements.

H. G. TURNER, Pres.,
J. W. CRATES, Sec'y.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday-school Board begs leave to submit the following report:

We have been able to furnish all schools with such aid as they have asked. Several of our Mission Schools have become self-supporting. We very heartily commend our Sunday-school literature as the very best that can be had, and urge its use in all our schools.

Our thanks are tendered Bro. E. S. Boswell and Rev. J. O. A. Vaught for the excellent addresses delivered in our anniversary on Wednesday evening.

We regret that many of our schools do not hold the Children's Day exercises and take the collection as ordered by the Discipline, and, therefore, urge the pastors and superintendents to comply with the disciplinary requirements.

We respectfully call attention to the failure of a large number of parents to attend our Sunday-schools, and also to the habit of many of the members of the schools leaving the church at the close of the session, some of them before, and absenting themselves from the preached word. We insist upon the parents, teachers and superintendents that they do all they can to overcome this evil.

Resolved 1. That we have Dr. H. M. Hammell to hold two institutes during the coming year at Somerset and Maysville.

Resolved 2. That we recommend the Bible Teacher's Study Circle to all our schools as a means of better equipping teachers for their great work.

Resolved 3. That the Home and Cradle Roll Departments be used wherever needed.

Every "up-to-date" Sunday-school will cheerfully use all the best methods to advance the intelligence and increase the usefulness of all its members; and endeavor to bring all to a saving knowledge of God and of His Christ.

F. M. HILL, Ch'n.,
W. E. WYATT, Sec'y.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

It is the duty of the church to present to the world correct ideals of citizenship, because christian character and therefore christian conscience, involved the relation of the citizen to the state. Public opinion is the resultant of the many opinions of a community. Public opinion finds its expression in public institutions. Public institutions index public morality. If the community tolerates a bad thing it is proof that public morality is bad. If public morality is bad it must be, in a large measure, because public opinion is based upon falsehood, or, at best, on ill-conceived truth.

That the state is partner with the saloon is proof sufficient that public opinion is bad, because the saloon, the expression of public opinion, is bad. It is a fact that ninety-five criminal cases out of one hundred recently appearing successively before our Appellate Court were the product of liquor drinking.

Canon Farrar said: "It is the business of the church to save men: it is the business of the saloon to damn them." This contrast is illustrated by the fact that the subway saloon blessed by Bishop Potter, has recently failed financially because the proprietor said: "The saloon and religion can not run together."

As the licensing of the liquor traffic is a sin, it must be a sin to vote for it.

For this reason, therefore:

Resolved, 1. That we endorse the Anti-Saloon League of America which seeks to destroy the saloon; that we invite its representatives to present their work in our houses of worship and that we recommend the League to the sympathy and co-operation of our people. We trust the Kentucky issue to be published as the organ of the League, will succeed as the cause deserves.

Resolved, 2. That we recommend the appointment of Revs. W. E. Arnold and C. F. Evans as delegates to the National Convocation of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and G. W. Bain, G. B. Winslow and Revs. J. R. Deering, U. G. Foote and J. D. Redd as Trustees of said League in Kentucky.

Resolved, 3. That we re-affirm our judgment delivered at the Nicholasville Conference that fermented wine be not used at our sacramental services.

Resolved, 4. That we urge the passage of the Hepburn-Doliver Bill by the Congress of the United States.

Resolved, 5. That we will impress upon our people the vital importance of nominating men for the legislature by their respective parties who will vote for the amendment to our Local Option Law, which seeks to provide that no unit under the present law shall take a vote on the same day with another unit of which it is a part, so that righteousness and social order may have an equal chance with the liquor traffic.

Resolved, 6. That we re-affirm our judgment, uttered repeatedly during the past five years, that the habitual use of tobacco is wrong and the request that our ministers and members desist from the use of it.

We specially emphasize our condemnation of the cigarette habit, the more earnestly because legislatures and public schools have on physical, mental and moral grounds, condemned it; for the church can not fall below the body politic or any moral question.

RESTORATION OF SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Whereas, The Sabbath is the Lord's day, an institution of his creation, as old as the testimony of the scriptures and recognized in the statutes of our country, both State and National, and its observance, a direct and positive command of His, in the which is the foundation of our reverence for God, the strength of our character as a people, and the hope of the church to reach the unsaved; therefore, we view with regret the growing tendency to transform this institution from one of holy reverence and though into a day of business, amusement and sport that breeds criminals, demoralizes character and lessens the influence of christianity in the home, and undermines the vitality and power of our political freedom and union with God—with these grievances we look to our remedy, and, therefore, be it resolved that:

1. We will recognize the works of necessity and mercy.
2. That we will continue to observe the day and from the pulpit, our ministers will continue to preach against the desecration of the Sabbath and warn the people of the evil consequences thereof, and in as much as the laws of our State denounce with penalties, many of the violations of the Sabbath, we, if our observance and appeal from the pulpit be not sufficient remedy, then we will as a people appeal to the country and its officials whose sworn duty it is to look to and after the enforcement of the statutory Sabbath laws.
3. That we are in favor of restoring the long established rule forbidding the issuing of money orders and the registration of mail on Sunday in the United States Post Offices and oppose all forms of United States Post Office banking on the Sabbath, and to this end ask that a resolution embodying this sentiment be passed by this Conference and forwarded to the Honorable Postmaster General of the United States, George B. Cortelyou.
4. That the Sabbath railroad traffic, at reduced rates, the Sunday theatre and baseball, attract the attention of great multitudes of people from the church and is Sabbath desecration and leads to other forms of vice; therefore, we ask that appropriate legislation be enacted by our State Legislature, regulating this evil and to this end we ask that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Honorable J. C. W. Beckham, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the other proper officials at the proper time, as the appeal of this church for proper legislation thereon by the next General Assembly of Kentucky.
5. That the forces and influences of christianity are the chief stay to the property value of our country and the bulwark of its morality, and these same forces and influences are at all times subservient to the support of the Government through taxation and otherwise, and we therefore emphasize the right to our appeal by petition and otherwise, to the proper authorities, for legislation and such orders as will bring to the minds and hearts of the people the purposes and holy reverence of the Sabbath day.
6. We endorse the good work being done all over the land by the Sunday League of America, presented at this session for the first time, by its General Manager, Rev. Edward Thomson, LL.D., of St. Louis, and are gratified to learn that he intends to give a month to the cities of this Conference this autumn. We have read some of the literature and documents issued by this society and believe them to be suggestive and valuable in interesting the people in Sabbath reform.

Respectfully submitted,

L. A. WEST, Ch'n.

E. K. ARNOLD, Sec'y.

The special aim, for this year is to reach 100,000 members before March 1st, 1906. To accomplish this we urge the hearty co-operation of every Pastor in the Conference. To arouse the indifferent women of the church will require much prayer, love and personal work. The work in every field is most promising, but if we would accomplish the greatest good, let every woman in Southern Methodism band themselves together, to redeem the world for Christ.

IF you have a participating policy in the Union Central Life Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, will be paid to you in Annual Dividends. The advantage of having a policy in this company, which for more than twenty years has earned more and saved more than any other American company, is that it pays the largest dividends to its policy holders. Its assets consist mainly of mortgage loans on real estate; it has no stocks or bonds. Assets, $45,000,000. Established 1867.
